

FROM RESEARCH TO PRACTICE

STONE PINE AND PINE NUTS MORE KNOWLEDGE FOR A BETTER MANAGEMENT

OCTOBER 30, 2019
8H30 - 17H00

SALA DE ATOS MAIN BUILDING
INSTITUTO SUPERIOR DE AGRONOMIA

Free registration but limited to room capacity. Registration is required until October 25th by email to cef@isa.ulisboa.pt with the following information: name, institution, and email.

STONE PINE AND PINE NUTS

MORE KNOWLEDGE FOR A BETTER MANAGEMENT

OCTOBER 30, 2019
8H30 - 17H00

PROGRAM

- 8h30 | Attendee's reception
- 9h15 | Starting session
- 9h30 | Growth and reproduction: what we know and what we need to know
– Alexandra Correia
- 10h00 | Effects of water and nutrients on tree growth and production in a grafted stone pine orchard
– João Silva
- 10h30 | Advances in the knowledge of the Western conifer seed bug in Portugal
– Ana Farinha
- 11h00 | Coffee break
- 11h30 | Cone pine weight and its relation with pine nuts yield: the competition effect
– Alexandra Nunes
- 12h00 | Radial variation of chemical wood composition in stone pine
– Ana Alves
- 12h30 | Lunch
- 14h00 | Drones and photogrammetry – contribution to stone pine management
– Alexandre Sarmento
- 14h30 | Soils fertility in stone pine stands in Portugal
– Maria Encarnação Marcelo
- 15h00 | Evaluation of cone pine yield using the X-ray technique
– Conceição Santos Silva
- 15h30 | Pests affecting Stone pine cone and seed production: incidence, monitoring, and control
– Manuela Branco
- 16h00 | Round table
- 17h00 | Snack

FROM RESEARCH TO PRACTICE

www.isa.ulisboa.pt